

Middle Block

An Orientation Session, 'A Gateway to Middle School,' was organised, inviting parents of upcoming Class VI and VIII students, from different branches, to engage in an extraordinary display of Science projects, Character Feat of James and the Giant Peach, Art exhibition and Urdu poetry enactments, culminating students creative and oratorical skills (including a variety of activities and interactive sessions). This was followed by a comprehensive presentation about the various aspects of 'Life at Middle School – Canal Campus.'

